

Conference on Theoretical Economics - December 10, 2008

Visitors to the Department of Economics in December 2008 were Professor Jean-Marc Bonnisseau and Professor Pascal Gourdel, Paris School of Economics, University of Paris 1. A Workshop on Theoretical Economics was held on December 10 with the support of the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences.

Wednesday, December 10

10:30 - 11:30: Session I: Room 358 Snow Hall

Financial Economies with Restricted Participation
Final Defense of Zaier Aouani, University of Kansas

12:00 - 1:30 Lunch

1:30 Opening: Bernard Cornet, University of Kansas

2:00 - 3:20: Session II: Room 358 Snow Hall

Rationalization and Adaptive Dynamics in Games With Strategic Substitutes
Tarun Saberwal, University of Kansas

Existence of Solutions in Continuous-time Optimal Growth Models
Pascal Gourdel, Paris School of Economics, University of Paris 1

3:20 - 3:40 Break

3:40 - 5:00 Session III: Room 358 Snow Hall

The Economy as a Dynamical System
Mohamed El-Hodiri, University of Kansas

On the Uniqueness of Local Equilibria
Jean-Marc Bonnisseau, Paris School of Economics, University of Paris 1

Snow Hall
KU Univ Relations Photo

top ▲

Department of Economics
415 Snow Hall
The University of Kansas
Lawrence, KS 66045
Telephone: (785) 864-3501
Fax: (785) 864-5270
Email: econ@ku.edu

↑ top

A GREAT PLACE TO BE A CHAMPION