

DEPARTMENT OF ECONOMICS

Economist / PhD / Jayhawk

Getting a PhD in Economics is a smart decision, joining our program—even smarter.

Comprehensive structure. A PhD program with annual milestones and incentives to help students finish in 5 years.

Full funding. A five-year financial support package for strong students—typically includes a full tuition waiver, a paid graduate teaching assistant position, conference travel funding, and more.

Abundant research possibilities. Faculty specialize in a wide variety of areas and faculty-student pairings begin early.

Dedicated placement support. A placement team committed to help PhD students find jobs in their areas before graduation.

Exceptional quality of life. A beautiful campus and vibrant downtown await you. Be a part of the proud Jayhawk tradition!

Learn more. economics.ku.edu/phd_overview

Put us on your short list
PhD Applications due
January 2, 2019

